

Lecturer, Rhetoric, Writing, and Digital Media Studies, NAU English Department:

The Rhetoric, Writing, and Digital Media Studies program in the English Department at Northern Arizona University is pleased to invite applications for the position of lecturer in rhetoric and writing. The position has an anticipated start date of fall 2020. This is a full-time, 9-months, non-tenure track, benefit eligible position with a 4/4 teaching load at the Flagstaff campus. Responsibilities for this position include teaching English 305W, an interdisciplinary writing-intensive course, with a possibility to teach additional undergraduate courses as needed in the Rhetoric, Writing, and Digital Media Studies program. Additional professional development and service expectations will be determined in consultation with the Chair of English. This position is renewable dependent on program needs, available funding, and effective performance.

Minimum qualifications:

- M.A. in Rhetoric, Composition, Writing Studies, or closely related field in hand by August 15, 2020
- 2 years experience teaching university-level rhetoric and writing courses

Preferred qualifications:

1. PhD in Rhetoric and Composition or related field
2. Evidence of demonstrated commitment and successful interactions with people from diverse cultural, ethnic, racial, and national backgrounds
3. Evidence of successful teaching of rhetoric and writing at the undergraduate level
4. Evidence of teaching undergraduate courses in writing across the curriculum/in the disciplines
5. Expertise in rhetoric, composition, and/or writing theory
6. Evidence of a research agenda in rhetoric and composition

Applications for this position will only be considered if they are submitted through NAU's on-line application process. Please go to <https://in.nau.edu/human-resources/current-job-openings>, click on Faculty and Administrator Openings, and search for Job ID number 604844. The online application must include a single attachment containing: 1) Cover letter highlighting your particular qualifications for this position; 2) Curriculum vitae; 3) Evidence of teaching effectiveness (Include a summary of student evaluations and methods and materials for one particularly effective lesson you created); 4) Writing sample; 5) Names and contact information for three references. Save all items, in the order stated, as a single PDF or Word document and upload it as "Resume."

The search committee will begin reviewing files on March 30, 2020. Consideration of applications will continue until the position is filled or closed.

Northern Arizona University is located in Flagstaff, Arizona, and is situated at 7,000 feet in the midst of the largest ponderosa pine forest in the world. Ranked by Outside Magazine as the 7th best town in the nation, and by Fodor.com as one of the "20 College Towns We Love to Visit," Flagstaff offers an ideal environment for living, learning, and teaching.

Northern Arizona University (26,000 students) is composed of faculty, staff and students from a wide range of culturally diverse backgrounds. Applicants should be experienced with and dedicated to work with such a diverse population. NAU is an equal opportunity, affirmative action institution: minorities, women, persons with disabilities, and veterans are encouraged to apply.

<http://www.nau.edu>